

Cancer

Casting for Recovery: 1-888-553-3500, 707-529-2760

<http://www.castingforrecovery.org/>

Weekend fly fishing retreats at no cost for women in all stages of breast cancer treatment and recovery who live in Northern California.

© American Cancer Society-Sonoma County

707-545-6720

1-800-ACS-2345 (24 hr support)

1451 Guerneville Road, Suite 220

Santa Rosa, CA 95403

<http://www.cancer.org/>

Select “In Your Area”

Information, Resources and Guidance: Referrals to local ACS services and community resources; printed materials; up to date information on cancer, research treatments, clinical trials, etc...

Transportation: Road to Recovery Volunteers drive patients from treatment-related medical appointments; assistance with transportation costs; and assistance with out of town lodging. Advance notice needed.

Wigs, Turbans, Scarves and Hats: Available free at the Sonoma county office for eligible patients.

I Can Cope: Participate in a free peer support conference call for cancer survivors.

Reach for Recovery: Trained breast cancer survivors help women deal with the physical and emotional needs of being a breast cancer patient.

Cancer Survivor Network: Offers a comprehensive selection of on-line support groups for survivors and caregivers on a variety of topics, 1-877-333-4673.

Support Groups: Resources for local support and self-help groups for cancer patients, their families and friends.

Look Good Feel Better: Free beauty classes taught by cosmetologists for cancer patients.

Young Cancer Survivors Scholarship Awards: Available to college-bound or enrolled young cancer survivors.