

Childcare Resources

(see “Parenting” for additional resources)

☺ = Spanish speaking agency

☺ Kawana State Preschool: 542-4517

Free childcare for low-income parents and children at risk, as well as children in healthy, well-functioning family settings; open Monday-Friday and serving all Sonoma County residents.

☺ CA State Department of Social Services/ Community Care Licensing: www.cclcd.ca.gov, 588-5026

Information about licensed child care facilities.

☺ Children and Family Circle: 544-4653 cfckids.org

Subsidized childcare for at-risk infants and toddlers. Open Monday through Friday.

☺ Community Action Partnership: 544-6911, capsonoma.org

After-school programs, tutorial help, games, field trips, and counseling; in Santa Rosa.

☺ Community Child Care Council (4C’s) of Sonoma County: www.sonoma4cs.org, 544-3077

Provides childcare information and referrals, services and outreach for special needs children; operates 11 childcare centers throughout county for ages 2 months-6 years; website contains an excellent resource guide for children in Sonoma County; sliding scale, Medi-Cal accepted.

☺ First 5 Sonoma County: www.sonoma-county.org/children, 565-6680

The mini-grant program will provide small grants for programs that support and improve early development of children from prenatal to age 5. Applications taken twice a year.

☺ Head Start Program: 544-6911

Preschool for low income families and children with special needs; locations in Guerneville and Sebastopol; call for eligibility guidelines and application.

☺ Multicultural Child Development Center: 544-0104. Multiculturalpreschool.org

Free preschool for low and moderate income persons; apply in person at 1650 W. Third St., Santa Rosa.

☺ PACEAPP: www.paceapp.org, 585-0600

PACEAPP assists families with achieving self-sufficiency through education, advocacy, and empowerment. They help families find resources they need to support their families. Child care subsidies offered on a need basis.

☺ River to Coast Children’s Services: www.rccservices.org, 869-3613; Coast: 1-800-994-3613 Child care services and information for West County residents; financial assistance & childcare subsidies available.

☺ Santa Rosa Junior College: 527-4224 www.santarosa.edu/childddev/child-center

Subsidized childcare services for available to SRJC students, Monday- through Friday, for children ages 6 months to 5 years; long waiting list, so apply early; call for details. Search “children’s center” on website.

Sebastopol Community Center: www.seb.org, 823-0355

Offers “Tiny Tots” early childhood education program for potty-trained children ages 3-5; call to apply.

☺ Sonoma County Child Care Association: www.sccca.info, 237-4911

Child care information, resources and referrals.

YWCA “A Special Place”: 523-2337

Therapeutic pre-school program for children at risk, ages 3 to 5; call for details and/or application. Sliding scale fees available.